ONE DAY by Dr Bruce Woolard

“John 9:4 “I must work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day; the night is coming when no one can work.*”

There are two days in every week about which we should not worry. Two days which should be kept free from fear, anxiety and apprehension.

One such day is yesterday, with all its disappointments, mistakes, mishaps, misunderstandings, hurts and pain. Yesterday has passed, its gone, we cannot relive it, its beyond our control. All the money in the world cannot bring yesterday back. We cannot erase a single unwise word we have spoken or heard. Yesterday is gone.

Tomorrow is the other day with all its challenges and promises that does not require our immediate attention. Tomorrow's events maybe beyond our immediate control. The sun will rise tomorrow in magnificent splendour or be hidden by dark clouds. Tomorrow remains unborn.

This leaves us with only one day to concern ourselves with. All of us and each and every one of us can face the struggles of one day. Its only when we add the regrets of yesterday and the fears of tomorrow that today seems impossible for us to cope with. It's not today that drives us to the cusp of frustration or insanity, but the bitterness that we harbour from yesterday and the past. It's also the dread of what may or may not unravel tomorrow.

So thank God for the strength and energy that He has given to you today, and let each new day be “a day” that you will be a winner and achiever. My friend let go of yesterday, don't fear tomorrow but celebrate this new day with the assurance that our Lord will take care of the past and the future.

Prayer:

Lord, help me to focus on the issues of today and although I will be tired and exhausted at the end of this day I will sleep and be refreshed to meet a new day. Amen.
